Dear Mr. Coleman:

You submitted a records request for the following documents: (1) “copies of any documents showing the ADA policies of the Supreme Court regarding services, programs, and activities of the public entity”; (2) “copies of any documents showing the process and results of any self-evaluation done by the Supreme Court regarding policies and practices of the court in adult guardianship proceedings or any other type of judicial proceedings”; and (3) “copies of any documents showing the grievance procedures adopted by the Supreme Court for receiving, processing, and resolving complaints that policies or practices of the Supreme Court violate the ADA, and the name of the agent or employee designated to receive such grievances.”

Having reviewed your request, I am writing to inform you the Court has the following responsive documents:

1. Court Access for Individuals with Disabilities
2. The Supreme Court of Missouri Grievance Procedure under the Americans with Disabilities Act

As stated in the Court’s grievance policy, Beth Riggert, Communications Counsel, is the employee designated to receive any ADA grievances. Also, to the extent you are requesting documents showing the Court’s ADA policies, you may wish to review this Court’s website at <https://www.courts.mo.gov/page.jsp?id=130>, discussing accessibility information for the Court.

Additionally, this Court does not have any records pertaining to self-evaluations performed pursuant to 28 C.F.R. § 35.105 regarding adult guardianship proceedings or any other judicial proceedings.

Very truly yours,

Betsy AuBuchon
